For some time now I have been deeply exercised by the growing need to invest in key leaders in emerging countries. We are constantly hearing of what God is doing in many of these nations, and one of the greatest needs is to develop those who can lead, mentor and train others in their own lands.

Morling is already having some impact in equipping such people to be visionary leaders amongst their own people, but we can do so much more. We have the training resources, which is evident in those who have already graduated and moved back to their own countries. But what is lacking is the finances to bring more of those with leadership potential to Morling to be effectively trained to lead, disciple and mentor their own people.

This fund has come into being after much prayer and discussion within the Morling community and it's exciting to think of the ripple effect that will take place as we see these individuals impacting thousands of others through the overflow of their lives the years to come.

What will our beneficiaries look like?

We are looking for individuals who evidence:

- A clear Christian faith and ongoing spiritual growth
- A passion for God and for people
- A demonstrated ability to lead
- A sense of vision for specific future ministries back in their own country
- A strong recommendation from their local leaders
- An ability to gain acceptance to study at Morling College

Financial Support to be provided

Beneficiaries will receive the following support:

- The Fund will cover all tuition expenses and may contribute up to the total cost of accommodation and food during their semesters of study.
- Students will not be given loans from the Fund.

How do I financially support the fund?

Our hope is that some of our local churches will adopt this project as part of their missionary commitment and contribute all or part of the cost of training a student, as well as supporting them in prayer and on a personal level, as they adapt to living in our country.

We also anticipate that individuals with the capacity to contribute financially will see this as a great opportunity to be involved in the expansion of the church in the emerging world through monthly contributions or one-off gifts. All donations to the fund are tax deductible.

To give now simply fill in the donation slip on the back of this brochure and send this in to Morling College. Thank you for your support.

It is a rare opportunity from an African context to study and gain admission into an Australian educational institution by becoming an international student. In fact, your kindness and generosity shown to me demonstrate the true position of oneness in Christ; engaging universal Christian mission towards fulfilling Christ's mandate for all mankind.

I am grateful to God for an opportunity to study at Morling College, and I am thankful to Morling College for its support in my training, equipping me for the future ministry. I feel very privileged to study here and to draw the knowledge and skills from the devoted to God and experienced Christians. I am very thankful to Morling College for its financial support as well, Morling College has been providing for me not only the necessary and valuable Christian education, but also care and spiritual encouragement.

“ I am thankful for Morling and their support to be able to come to Australia and study at the college to be better equipped and trained. When I finish the course, I will return to my country to minister to my own people. I hope to be able to travel up to the north of the country, to share the love, joy and hope I received from Jesus, to walk alongside the locals and to offer a helping hand.”
