

Credit Point Policy: Education

Title: Credit Point Policy: Education
Master of Education (Leadership), Master of Education, Graduate Diploma of Education, Master of Teaching (Secondary).

Author: Dean of Education

Approved by: Academic Board

Date: December 2015

Review date: December 2018

Credit point policy

For each unit of study there is a correlation between the number of credit points and the number of hours required and this varies across the awards.

1 Master of Education/Master of Education (Leadership)

- Each unit of study is 9 credit points
- Each credit point has the equivalence of 20 hours
- The expected workload for each unit of study is 180 hours
- The M Ed/M Ed (Lead) each has a total of 8 units of study (72 credit points) for completion
- Full time students complete 3 units of study per Semester
- Each Semester is 13 weeks

2 Graduate Diploma of Education

- Each unit of study is 9 credit points
- Each credit point has the equivalence of 20 hours
- The expected workload for each unit of study is 180 hours
- The Grad Dip Ed has a total of 4 units of study (36 credit points) for completion
- Full time students complete 2 units of study per Semester
- Each Semester is 13 weeks

3 Master of Teaching (Secondary)

- Each unit of study is 4 credit points
- Each credit point has the equivalence of 37.5 hours
- The expected workload for each unit of study is 150 hours
- The Master of Teaching (Secondary) has a total of 16 units of study (64 credit points) for completion
- Full time students complete 4 units of study per Semester
- Each Semester is 13 weeks

Students who complete the Graduate Diploma of Education and then later wish to enrol in the MEd have a maximum of two years after graduating with the Graduate Diploma of Education to enrol in the Master of Education.